The Members of «Club»

I've been asked to print the following in Gas & Air, and although I have some misgivings, as Mike says he surely does 'have the right to speak'.

A LONG FORGOTTEN CAPTAIN.

I would not wish to embarrass Barrie with this short letter to Gas & Air but as someone who put in over fifteen years of work into establishing G&A and the Dorset postal competition, I surely have the right to speak.

You will remember that successive captains, who took over on my retirement, found the going tough and I was, to say the least, distressed to see the state of air shooting in the County and the results of my work drop down to a very low level indeed. Back in those heady days we had established what many considered was one of the best Open Championships on the calendar shot annually at Bryanston School, that alone was three months hard work and I realise those sort of competitions are very difficult to run and cost these days. However, this is just to express my sincere gratitude to Barrie for the work he has done to return the County Postal competition to the standard it deserves. I did not inherit the Captainship from Barrie and some of you will remember Steve Ellis who I assisted until he moved County; however, Barrie was my mentor, he taught me how to use a computer and has been a valued friend for some twenty-five years so this is just a New Year thank you to him and New Year greetings to you all

Mike Johnson.

I think Mike under values himself with his header. Although he didn't start the leagues in Dorset, he is remembered as the person who was instrumental in escalating the leagues to National level from the purely provincial leagues they once were. He also started the now defunct Dorset Open, which for many years figured as one of the premier open meetings in the UK.

Mike used to organise the meeting virtually single handed, I was only there to represent the interests of pistol shooters. The pressures of organising a high level meeting are extremely high, and we were both a little bit younger, and a lot more volatile than we are today. On more than one occasion we had, shall we say, a difference of opinion; but fortunately it never got beyond repair.

It is worth remembering that in the early days results were not a just question of typing a few scores into a computer, they were virtually non existent, at least to our shallow pockets. We relied on typewriters, calculators, and card files; and of course gallons of Tippex. I think we were instrumental in keeping Tippex UK in business for a good many years.

After that short history of the Dorset Leagues, back to the results.....
