FRONT COVER

South West Coast Path

South West Coast Path descending westward from the heights of Hambury Tout towards Durdle Door, or at least it did until earlier this week. The latest in a series of cliff falls after a winter of higher than average rainfall has consigned this section of path to the sea.

St Oswald's Bay in the foreground, Durdle Door hidden behind the headland; and Swyre Head and Bat's Head in the distance.

The South West Coast path starts on the edge of Poole Harbour and closely follows the coast through Dorset, Devon and Cornwall, until it reaches Minehead in Somerset. The path was originally a coastguard route to stop the smuggling that was rife in the 18th and 19th centuries.

The path covers a distance of about 650 miles, and it has been estimated that the ascents made when traversing the route would be the equivalent of four times the height of Everest.

Current and archived results, Gas & Air, averages etc., are also published in PDF format on www.dsrpa.co.uk.

Generally speaking they will be available before postal results are received.

The DSRPA also organize Gallery/Sport Rifle Leagues. If you're interested ask for your name to be added to the contact list for this discipline.
