FRONT COVER

Dorset coast from White Nothe to St Aldhems Head.

A view along the Dorset coast showing the typical switchback formation common to the Purbecks. The hills are in order White Nothe, Bat's Head, Swyre Head, Hambury Tout/Dungy Head and Bindon Hill. The South West Coast path guide describes the walk as 'challenging'. I can confirm that, but it also applies to most of the Purbeck sections.

In the background, nearly lost in the haze, is St Aldhems Head; with the Lulworth Ranges in between. A distance of about twelve miles.

On the headland at White Nothe are a row of ex- coastguard cottages, relics of the days coastguards patrolled the cliff top on foot. The cottages have no roads, no mains water, no electricity, no deliveries, but are still in use today. Life at it's most basic.

Current and archived results, Gas & Air, averages etc., are also published in PDF format on www.dsrpa.co.uk
