FRONT COVER

Man O' War Cove

The unique geology of the Dorset coastline lends itself to the formation of numerous small picturesque coves. Man O' War Cove, lying within St Oswald's Bay, gets its name from the central reef formation, supposedly reminiscent of a 19th century naval warship.

Current and archived results, Gas & Air, averages etc., are also published in PDF format on www.dsrpa.co.uk
